

BANGOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT MONDAY, MAY 18, 2020

The Bangor Symphony Orchestra invites students in grades 3 through 8 to attend this year's Young People's Concerts at the Collins Center for the Arts: Monday, May 18, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. and 11:45 a.m.

Lucas Richman, Music Director and Conductor for the Bangor Symphony Orchestra, has made it his mission to instill in young children the awareness of music as an integral part of their lives. This year's concert theme is "Carnival!" Join us for a festive celebration of the orchestra and its many members, where we will learn how composers create colorful worlds with music.

Antonin Dvořák	Carnival Overture
Camille Saint-Saëns	Selections from Carnival of the Animals
TBD	Winner of the Maine High School Concerto Competition
Daniel Dorff	Billy and the Carnival
John Williams	Harry's Wondrous World from Harry Potter

The hour-long education and music program is supplemented with an instructional packet for students and teachers providing information about the orchestra and the selections that will be featured. Concerts are open to public, private, and homeschooled children.

Tickets are $3 each for students and teachers. We will fulfill orders on a first come, first serve basis.

The Collins Center will invoice your school after the registration deadline has passed. Reservations should be requested by Friday, March 30, 2020, and can be made by phone, fax, or mail.
